VICTORIA COLEMAN

Exclusive Artist

Victoria is an artist who lives in beautiful Shropshire with her three dogs, one cat, and ever-supportive partner, Jason. She paints captured moments that tell a story, inspired by the small, quirky nuances of life that seem insignificant but hold deep meaning—like a look or a situation, often involving humour, dogs, cats, and sometimes a white-haired, middle-aged woman named Veronica, whom she believes might be her alter ego. Creating art is what brings Victoria happiness, and in return, she hopes the art she creates brings happiness to others—or at least a smile.
